Polski Holding Nieruchomości S.A. has been recognized in the prestigious and opinion-forming ranking “Turbines of Polish Economy 2016”, published by “Gazeta Finansowa” weekly.

Tuesday, October 4, 2016 (All day)

“Turbines of Polish Economy 2016” is a ranking of small and medium enterprises, created based on revenues. In this year’s edition, Polski Holding Nieruchomości S.A. came in first among 150 SMEs, with H1 2016 revenue of PLN 88.6 million, which means an increase of over 21% compared to PLN 73.0 million year-on-year.

“Gazeta Finansowa” writes: “As usual, we present a ranking of the most dynamic enterprises (...) which certainly cope very well in challenging market conditions. It is those companies that build our market, shape it, and drive development. It is worth to track their actions (...) it is a dynamically growing sector which plays a big role in shaping the Polish economy”.

It is not the only distinction awarded to Polski Holding Nieruchomości S.A. by “Gazeta Finansowa” – in the ranking of 50 most dynamic SMEs, PHN came in 37th. These are examples of achievements of Polski Holding Nieruchomości S.A. thanks to which the Company belongs to enterprises described as “standing out from the crowd and contributing to the development of Polish business.”
