Polski Holding Nieruchomości S.A. on top of the 1st edition of the ranking “Transparent Company of the Year 2016”

Thursday, April 6, 2017 - 17:01

Polski Holding Nieruchomości S.A. received the title of “Transparent Company of the Year 2016” in the first edition of the ranking prepared by the Accounting and Tax Institute and “Parkiet” stock exchange daily. The ranking’s results were based on a survey among companies, covering three major areas of communication with the market: financial reporting, investor relations and corporate governance principles.

The ranking’s organizers aimed at improving the quality of public companies’ communication with the market by increasing awareness among: the management – about areas which are important in that communication; supervisory bodies – about issuers’ information and reporting duties; auditors – about the important role they play in auditing issuers’ financial statements, about signals they send to companies, and whether their task should be restricted to issuing an opinion on auditing the financial statements; and consultants and advisers, who are often a source of innovation and a new approach to communication with the market.
